

F.O.L.K

(Friends of the Library at Kalama)

Programs at the Kalama Public Library, in conjunction with F.O.L.K., supports the goal of providing free and equitable access to quality information and learning for all ages and for all residents of the community and the area.

Program content must be respectful towards a diverse audience and fit within the mission of the library to best serve this community.

Things to know:

- Library/F.O.L.K. sponsored programs are free to attend and open to the public.
- Solicitation of customers or clients is prohibited at library programs.
- Presenters shall not discriminate against any person in the provision of services on the basis of race, religion, medical condition, disability, marital status, sex, age, or sexual orientation.
- F.O.L.K., in conjunction with the library, will help promote your program with posters, press releases, fliers, and/or online publicity, if requested.
- Programs should be scheduled ahead from four to six weeks.
