CONGRATULATIONS SERGEANT ROBBIE SATTERLY

After a lengthy international search, the Police Department is happy to announce the selection of Officer Robbie Satterly as the second Police Sergeant! Sergeant Satterly was sworn in at the July 21st City Council Meeting. Congratulations, Robbie!

WWTP AWARD

The Kalama Wastewater Treatment Plant (WWTP) received the 2021 Outstanding WWTP Award from the Washington State Department of Ecology! This means they, “met pollution limits, conducted monitoring, turned in reports on time, planned for spill prevention, pretreated waste, and fulfilled operational demands outlined in their permits”. Across the state, 124 facilities earned this award.

CREATE YOUR OWN BOOK AT THE LIBRARY!

Calling all kids! Create your own book at the library! A professional artist and writer will be here to help! We'll provide all supplies—just bring your creativity! Meet us August 6th @ 10:00am at the library. Call 360-673-4568 to register (free event).

STORYTIME STARTS: SEPTEMBER 7TH

Storytime is a kid-sized adventure for children through age 5 that lasts throughout the school year. It's a reading readiness program with stories, songs, rhymes, and movement provided by the Kalama Public Library. Join us on the 1st and 3rd Wednesdays of each month! Location: Kalama Community Building 216 Elm Street, Wednesdays from 10:30am-11:15am!
